WHY SHOULD YOUR CHILD PARTICIPATE IN A LIBRARY SUMMER READING PROGRAM?

*A large study of elementary students from varying backgrounds revealed that reading 4 to 5 books over the summer has the potential to prevent a decline in reading achievement scores from the spring to the fall. [Kim, J. (2004, April). Summer reading and the ethnic achievement gap. Journal of Education for Students Placed at Risk, 9 (2), 169-189.]

PRESENTERS & PROGRAMS @ YOUR LIBRARY THIS SUMMER

JULY

Tues., July 7 @ 1 pm: Children's Museum of NH "High-Flying Heroes Program". A startlingly-science filled hands-on journey through the basics of flight and aviation's greatest heroes.

Thurs., July 9 @ 1 pm: Design your own Super Hero & Sign Up Drawing.

Tues., July 14 @ 1 pm: Mariposa Museum's Story of Chocolate Program. Examine a living cacao tree, enjoy a Mayan legend about the theft of chocolate from paradise, and take part in a chocolate-making demonstration. While we wait for our home-made chocolate to temper, you are invited to learn where the cacao tree grows, how the beans are processed, and what the "organic" and "fair-trade" designations mean in the world of cocoa. Everyone will have an opportunity to taste raw cacao nibs, imagine whether or not they would have enjoyed the original Mayan or Aztec drink, and sample a modern version of Mexican spiced hot chocolate.

Thurs., July 16 @ 1 pm: Super Hero Training.

Tues., July 21 @ 2 pm: Lindsay & Her Puppet Pals. Life-sized puppets take the stage with a show filled audience interaction and lovable characters.

Thurs., July 23 @ 1 pm: Big Hero 6 movie & Half Point Drawing.

Tuesday, July 28 @ 2pm: Critters 'N Creatures, LLC "Heroes and Villains Program". Live animal show with display & petting session following the show. Sponsored by the Friends of the Allenstown Public Library.

Thurs., July 30 @ 1 pm: Animal Hero Fun.
